COUNTY BOARD OF EDUCATION ORGANIZED

The Bath County Board of Education elected last November, met in the office of the County Superintendent on March 5th and perfected their organization, according to the new school law. After the oath of office had been administered by County Clerk Cole Barnes, the Board began its organization. Dr. J. K. Wells was elected chairman and B. A. Shroat, vice chairman. The County Superintendent is secretary and treasurer of the Board by virtue of his office.

The following standing committees were appointed:

Finance—P. P. Richardson, B. A. Shroat and J. K. Wells.

Building and Repairs—C. W. Bristow, B. A. Shroat and J. K. Wells.

Supplies—Omer Rogers, C. W. Bristow and P. P. Richardson.

Employment of Teachers—Omer Rogers, P. P. Richardson and J. K. Wells.

Grievance—B. A. Shroat, J. K. Wells and P. P. Richardson.

Regular meeting dates were designated as follows:

Last Saturday in March, First Saturday in April, First Saturday in May, Second Saturday in June, September, October, November, December and February. The Board meets on the first Monday in January of each year for organization purposes.

B. W. Kincaid was unanimously elected County Superintendent for a term of four years, beginning January, 1922.

The Second Saturday in June was designated as the meeting at which teachers will be elected for the coming school year. Until applicants have taken the May examination and received their certificates, Bath Co. will not have enough competent teachers to teach her schools. The postponement of the election of the Board until June will enable the Board to consider all applicants to select from.

Education. The organization and the system of Bath Co. to improve rural school conditions and to give to the people the service to which they are entitled. By fixing regular meeting dates those who wish to come before the Board will know just when to do so. Matter of complaint, etc., can be adjusted through the committees without calling the entire Board.

MRS. SALLIE SMOOT

Mrs. Sallie Smoot, widow of Marion Smoot, deceased died Wednesday, March 16 of heart trouble. She lived only a short time after becoming ill. She was 62 years old and was born October 11, 1858.

She had four living children, Ed and Tom Smoot, Mrs. Riley Manley, all of this county, and Mrs. Clarence Beagle, of Middletown, O. She had several sisters and brothers and a mother and a host of friends to mourn her loss. She was laid to rest by the side of her husband who died several years ago. Rev. R. L. Bailey, of Owingsville, conducted the funeral services at the home of her son, Ed Smoot. She was a good Christian woman and a kind, loving mother and will be greatly missed by her many friends and neighbors. (Our loss will be Heaven's gain.—Contributed).

Moves From Bath County

Mr. Yell Barnes, of Bath county, purchased from Cravens & Turpin the 52-acre farm on the United States homestead to Mr. Charles R. Barnes, of this city, and has moved here with his family to live. He was paid $1200 per acre, cash, or a total of $62,400. Mr. Barnes and family are excellent people and we welcome them to this county. (Mt. Sterling Gazette).

Father Robt Dies

Rev. Father R. J. Kolp, Catholic priest in charge of the church at Mt. Sterling for many years, died at Joseph's hospital, Lexington, after long illness. He was much beloved by his congregation and the people of Mt. Sterling. Father Kolp was frequently called here to minister to the sick.

Several of those who took the examination—among them Joe Arnold, J. B. Brother, Jr., and A. M. B. and Cassie Nixon, have received from Franklin certificates of eligibility as candidates for County Tax Commissioner.

CREAM, CREAM CREAM STATION

We will open a cream station on March 31 for Swift & Co. at the Reese Wells grocery store, Main street Owingsville. We will test every day and will pay the highest possible prices. Come and give us a trial.

ED THOMAS

Manager and Operator.

J. R. Brother & Co.
of Owingsville, say:

The De Laval puts money in the bank

MONEY in the bank is the final test of any piece of farm equipment. It is especially true of a cream separator.

Butterfat is the most valuable product of the farm. Twice a day, every day in the year, gravity skimming or a poorly constructed separator wastes this high-priced food.

A De Laval Cream Separator stops this loss of profit. It supplies the extra money that is needed for current expenses, improvements about the farm, or for the purchase of new stock.

More than 2,500,000 De Laval are in daily use throughout the world. These De Laval owners represent the most progressive and most prosperous farmers in every country and locality.

A De Laval Cream Separator will make your farm more profitable, too, and put money in the bank for you.

Remember a De Laval on each farm that will actually pay for itself while you are using it. Come and ask us.

Sooner or later you will buy a De Laval

Counties May Lend Money to State.

In a decision rendered at Frankfort last week the Court of Appeals decided an issue which will have a broad effect on highway work in Kentucky. The decision came in the case of County Judge W. W. Cook, of Hopkins county, vs. J. B. Barnes, and involved the question of the right of the county to lend money to the State for its share of highway work.

It was held that farmers will voluntarily give the average of 10 to 15 cents per acre, throughout the State, growing state, all organized effort for reduction have failed.

Dr. S. P. Fetter, who married the widow of John C. May, died at home in Ashland Friday. He had been returned from a New York hospital where he had been under treatment.

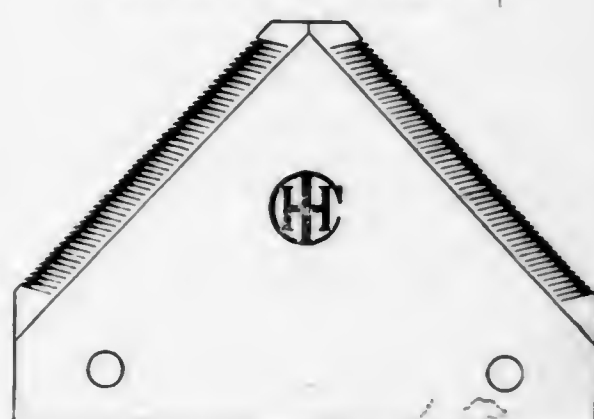

His century land has increased in value over ten million dollars.

HOW DOCTORS TREAT COLDS AND THE FLU

First Step in Treatment Is a Brisk Purgative With Calomel, the Purified and Refined Calomel. Tablets that are Nausealess, Safe and Sure.

Doctors have found by experience that no medicine for colds and influenza can be depended upon for full effectiveness until the liver is made thoroughly active. That is why the first step in the treatment is the new, nausealess calomel tablets called Calomel.

Doctors also point out the fact that an active liver may go a long way towards preventing influenza and is one of the most important factors in enabling the patient to successfully withstand an attack and ward off pneumonia.

One Calomel on the tongue at bed time with a swallow of water—that's all. No salts, no nausea, no slightest interference with your eating, pleasure or work. Next morning your cold has vanished, your liver is active, your system is purified, and you are feeling fine, with a hearty appetite for breakfast. Druggists sell Calomel only in original sealed packages, price thirty-five cents. Your money will be cheerfully refunded if you do not find them delightful. (Adv.)

Kentucky News Cullings

An epitome of the most important events transpiring throughout the state

Grayson. John Kees, of Benton, 41 years old, was caught under a state fall in the Harrison Walker Brick Co. mines and instantly killed. His two sons were working with him, but were not injured.

Mayfield. Construction of the Mayfield Brook drainage ditch, the greatest drainage project in Kentucky, has been begun with launching of the largest dredge ever used in the state. The ditch will extend from Graves county to the Mississippi river.

Carlisle. The 2-year-old daughter of Tom Westfall, a real estate man of this city, was killed in the face and chest by a bullet from a gun, with which her 6-year-old brother, Maurice Westfall, was playing, was accidentally discharged. It is thought the child will recover.

Murray. The grocery store of Kee & Pann caught fire and burned with all its contents, warehouse adjoining, and did several hundred dollars in damage to the dwelling of Joe Key. The insurance was $1,500 on stock and $800 on the dwelling. The loss will reach about $2,300.

Lebanon. A 25-year-old woman, known as Mrs. J. M. Johnson, was brought here from that place and taken to the McChord Hospital, suffering from two bullet wounds in the body and supposed to have been self-inflicted. One bullet pierced the man's left lung and the other passed entirely through his body.

Cynthiana. The store of M. Gold, 401 S. 1st, was entered by thieves who took $300 worth of silk shirts, socks and other clothing. The fastidious of the shatters of a rear window were forced. This is the third time the store has been robbed since this winter. The thieves have been apprehended.

London. For the first time in the history of this county women are serving on all the regular juries at this term of the Laurel Circuit Court. Mrs. Ida B. Lewis, wife of former County Attorney, is a member of the grand jury and is taking a leading part in the investigation of the offenses against the liquor and gambling laws and many indictments are being found.

Bowling Green. Miss Jessie Hodges, daughter of Mr. Hodges, a farmer residing near Plano, this county, was badly burned when her dress caught fire in front of an open grate at her home. Miss Hodges ran into the front yard, where her brother Paul and Arline Daniels tore the outer clothes from her and extinguished the flames. Both men were also badly burned on the hands and arms.

Wrightsville. David and Wortham, Indians in the side yard, 143 North 1st, were caught by the police. Both men jumped into the river to escape the flames.

Frankfort. The Court of Appeals decided that W. H. Giltner, of Louisville, had stated a cause of action in his suit for $300 shares of stock against the McGonigle Producing and Refining Company of that city. Giltner owned 44,000 shares of stock in the company to J. W. McCulloch. The par value of the stock was $1 and the market value $2.50, so that Giltner claimed that under a contract with the company he was entitled to $300 shares of stock for a commission for sale of $22,000. The lower court held that he had no such contract and therefore dismissed the petition. The Appellate Court held, however, that he did state a cause of action, reversed the lower court and directed that the lower court permit the petition to be amended so that the case could be tried and disposed of.

Frankfort. Of the 14,000 teachers in the public schools of the state not one-fourth of them are prepared to teach, was the statement made by Dr. George Colvin, State Superintendent of Public Instruction. Dr. Colvin says that there are a number of modern, well-equipped school plants in which the teachers can attend summer schools instead of attending county institutes. The maximum enrollment, he adds, may be 10,000 teachers, and he urges every teacher in Kentucky who can attend the summer schools to do so in preference to the county institutes.

Mayfield. Ben B. Wray, 29, World War veteran and principal of the Pilot Oak High School in the extreme southern part of the county, died from the effects of burns sustained when he mistook a can of gasoline for kerosene and undertook to make a fire in his schoolroom. The can exploded, setting fire to his clothes and, although his pupils made heroic efforts to save him, the flames were not extinguished until the pupils had dragged him through the deep snow on the playground.

Frankfort. Completing his sentence at the State Reformatory for grand larceny, Lee Roy Relford, of Woodford county, was taken into custody by two corporals of the Ft. Leavenworth Barracks, Kansas, as a parole violator. Relford had been paroled after serving a sentence in the barracks for assault and escape. When he broke out he came to the barracks and got into trouble in Woodford county. He was received at the reformatory May 18, 1924, to serve one year on larceny.

Lexington. Two "White Way" streets instead of one for Lexington was the goal of a campaign which was launched by merchants of Short street, who, judges over the expense, have been made to make Main street popular, organized to bustle the street on which they do business. M. B. Loevenhart was elected president of the organization which was formed, with J. W. Clark as secretary. A petition for electric lights on either side of Short street already has been presented to the city commissioners.

M. J. Cochran and made public by United States Clerk Spencer Finnell. The Crown Oil Co. was plaintiff.

Frankfort. Henry E. James, State Inspector and Examiner, made a financial audit of the county officers in Bell for the period from November, 1918, to February 1, 1921. He collected $2,137.57 due the state, of which $7,562.29 was received from County Clerk Robert Hollingsworth for motor license fees of $1,029.27, hunting license, miscellaneous license, mortgage recording, taxes, gasoline tax and delinquent land sales.

Whitesburg. When Wiley Jenkins, 50 years old, proprietor of the Kentucky Hotel, asked a crowd of dancers to leave, he was shot and instantly killed by Deputy Sheriff John Flannery, who resented the halting of the dance. Flannery escaped and a posse of officers went in pursuit within an hour. A reward of $300 was offered. Jenkins, a member of an old mountain family, was shot twice, the first bullet entering the mouth and ranging through the head.

Whitesburg. William B. Bates, farmer and land owner, 64 years old, shot and killed his son, Noah Bates, 23, using an old-fashioned rifle, police allege. Bitter feeling was said to have existed between them for several months. The son is said to have threatened the father. The boy was shot through the heart. The father walked five miles to Bastin to give himself to Corporal Joseph Younts, it is charged. He was brought to this Whitesburg jail.

Frankfort. The State Tax Commission has notified County Judge N. E. Smith that it believes the assessment of Franklin county should be increased $500,000, of which $100,000 is on farm land and $400,000 on town lots. This year the commission is assessing property at 80 per cent of its fair cash value as against 85 per cent last year, and this increase probably accounts for the increased assessment of Franklin county. The total assessment of Franklin county as made by County Tax Commissioner Lee amounts to $18,708,182, which is $120,000 higher than last year.

Louisville. Should the Board of Education receive an additional $100,000 from taxes on additional property listed for assessment, the money will be used to purchase supplies for the school year, 1924-1925, William Hoke Camp, chairman of the Finance Committee, said. Mr. Camp expressed the opinion that money will be carried over next year's balance so that bids for new chemicals, wood, blackboards and other needed material may be accepted when opened early in May. The law requires that no contract be let without cash in bank.

Frankfort. The question involved in a suit filed in the Franklin Circuit Court by S. H. Lewis, clerk of the Fayette Circuit Court, against Henry E. James, state inspector and examiner, and the members of the State Tax Commission, is whether county clerks are entitled to the five per cent allowed under an old statute for collecting and handling money for the state in addition to the 20 per cent fee collected by them for each motor license issued. Lewis collected $67,238 in motor licenses of which he remitted $61,550 to the state treasurer, and retained $5,688 which he claimed was the five per cent allowed by law for handling the state's funds. County Clerk Lewis asked for an injunction against the members of the State Tax Commission and Inspector James to restrain them from requiring him to report the five per cent of the funds collected or from taking any action whatever requiring him to pay over the five per cent to the state.

PALMER'S LIQUOR RULING TO STAND

REVIEW OF ATTORNEY'S OPINION POSSIBLE ONLY WHEN SOUGHT BY MEMBER OF CABINET.

Ruling on Beer To Stand, Unless Mellon Quieres, Daugherty Declares—Chapman Ordered Back To Old Post In Chicago.

Washington, D.C., June 18.—(AP)—An announcement that former Attorney General Mitchell Palmer's opinion, permitting physicians to prescribe beer for medical purposes would stand unless Secretary Andrew W. Mellon should ask for a review, was made by Harry M. Daugherty, Attorney General. The Attorney General reiterated that, except on request for a review by the head of a department, the Department of Justice could not hand down reviews of its opinions. Transfer of Daniel C. Chapin, Acting Supervising Production Agent for the state of New York, to his former post at Chicago, was announced by John P. Kramer, the United States Attorney.

Mr. Kramer said that Ernest Langley, who for some time has been an assistant to Mr. Chapin in New York, would succeed Mr. Chapin as Acting Supervising Production Agent for the state of New York. Mr. Langley was described as "an old time revenue man" who had served in different parts of the United States for fifteen years.

"There is no suggestion," said Mr. Kramer, "that the work of prohibition enforcement is not being smoothly handled in New York and Chicago. When Mr. Chapin took the post at New York, succeeding Mr. Shovin, it was with the understanding that he would be transferred back to Chicago. The new appointments are all 'acting' because no one knows when the new administration may announce changes in the personnel of executive positions. For my part, I am only an acting official until my successor is announced and ready to take office."

Since recent rulings of the Department of Justice, giving to physicians authority to prescribe wine and beer in unlimited quantities, Mr. Kramer has been seeking to ascertain how much wine or beer is necessary to relieve an illness that calls for such remedies. The views of many physicians have been sought in an attempt to reach conclusions upon which a ruling may be made.

The prohibition enforcement unit of the Bureau of Internal Revenue is endeavoring to change the law last February, respecting with a force of 1,500 men, 4,000 and 4,000 men, it was announced at the company's office. It was announced an effort would be made to reach one-third normal production soon. Additional troops are to be added from day to day, on conditions warrant, it was announced.

GOOD BUSINESS RECORD

T. S. Shroat commenced business in Owensville, Ky., in 1890 in the furniture and undertaking business, and there have been few persons who have kept up with the times any an he. He is one of the first of the state to do em-months and was gassed while on the front. A short time after he came home he developed consumption and suffered several months. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Clyde Daise, of the Mt. Sterling Christian Church. He leaves three brothers, John of Mt. Sterling, with whom he made his home, Richard, of this place, Lee and Arch, who live in the West, and one sister, Mrs. Alford Phillips, of Lexington. He was a good boy and had a host of friends who will miss him.

In the light of God we see you Each night as we lie down,
 We hear your voice as when
 On earth and see each smile and frown
 And when we are called to join you
 In through we pray God to let us
 Go as peaceful and brave as you,
 From our hearts comes a better cry,
 Why, oh why did our dear one die.

Then comes the thought so solemn and deep,
 He is not dead but only asleep.
 It was the best sleep of an angel that
 Silently entered the door and too
 From our circle a dear one to dwell
 On that heavenly shore.

His brother, Richard Carpenter, J. D. Alexander has moved from Mt. Sterling to their old home place here vacated by Charlie Payne.

G. W. Farley received word Saturday that his father H. M. Farley of Mt. Sterling, was critically ill, not expected to live.

Mrs. Sue Jones spent the past week with her son W. E. Jones at Mt. Sterling.

Roe Carpenter and family spent Sunday with Willie Carpenter and wife.

Mrs. Charlie Price was in Lexington Saturday.

Mrs. John Rizer went to Lexington to a hospital where she was operated on. She is getting along nicely.

Richard Carpenter, who had been at the bedside of his brother Ed for three weeks returned home after the death of his brother on Monday.

Little Gladys Miller spent last week with her little cousins Berkeley and Robert Thomason at Mt. Sterling.

Mr. and Mrs. Shroat, Piper and Shroat, who own an automobile house, can full partnership after each of them had qualified in the undertaking business, and got their license to embalm and care for dead bodies.

A few years later the automobile house became in use and the new firm of Shroat, Piper and Shroat, who own an automobile house, can have a firm with three licensed embalmers and a stock of undertaking goods consisting of the cheapest burial outfit to the finest model of caskets, including all the newest designs.

This firm has not only two automobile hearses and an ambulance, have a truck to take tent and to burial grounds when needed, and also have a full line of automobiles to use for the family, including Hudson 7-passenger sedan.

During the past 31 years of this business they have always tried to give satisfaction and the public have appreciated their progress by giving them a good share of their patronage, which is very much appreciated.

UNUSUAL CONDITION

Texas Lady Suffered With Pulling

and Aching Pains Her Back, Which Cardui Relieved.

Houston, Texas.—Mrs. C. D. Cook, of 1912 Whitty Street, this city, recently said: "About four months after my marriage, I began suffering much pain, and knew that my condition was unusual, but couldn't just decide what was wrong. I had to go to bed. . . .

"All across my back and hips were pains, pulling and aching until I could hardly sit up. I stayed in bed a few days. My husband had heard of Cardui, so I told him he might get it. . . .

"After I had taken Cardui a few days, I was up. I took five bottles and haven't been in bed since for this trouble, for if I have the least symptoms of this trouble I get Cardui and take it in time.

"I have a number of friends who have used Cardui, and they recommend it very highly."

The experience of this Texas lady is similar to that related by thousands of other women.

Cardui is purely vegetable, and mild and gentle in its action. Cardui may be the very medicine you need if suffering with womanly troubles.

BROOMS

Get a "Crunch" broom at the Barber & Barber broom and brush store, price 65c and 75c.

Look for the RED LINE round the top

It's a Goodrich Shoe, the Brown 4-Buckle Gaiter, and it is All Rubber—no cloth top. Wear it right over your shoe, and when you come in from the field or barn, douse a bucket of water over it and it's cleaned. Then a click of the buckles and off she slips—and you go into the house clean and dry. But Wear is the big feature. It is Goodrich Rubber—and that means fifty years of experience backed by a square deal policy. 60,000 dealers sell it—a-k-a yours for Goodrich next time.

 RUBBER FOOTWEAR

When ground was broken Tuesday, March 1, for the Kentucky Children's Home Society at London, Ky., by George L. Sehon, head of the society, the spade which the future monument to Kentucky childhood erected by Kentucky children.

Mr. Sehon last month announced that work would start on the group of buildings, March 1, regardless of weather conditions and the promise to Kentucky's childhood was kept. The ceremonies were marked by a solemn benediction the great work of the establishment of his kind in the community. The institution was mission to the children from the clutches of evil everywhere those children who have no home with the adventures that go to a child's life.

Mr. Sehon says he feels assured that the institution has been purchased, having about $100,000 cash on hand to be at the disposal of the society for building purposes.

It is estimated that this sum will be needed in the erection of the institution building and two double cottages which will house about 75 children each. These buildings will be completed about October 1.

As accommodations then will be available at the new home for only about 150 children, whereas about 190 children now are at the home on Baxter avenue, it may be necessary to erect some temporary buildings.

Mr. Sehon says he feels assured that the remaining $100,000 needed to complete the cottage village will be raised during the campaign this summer.
